Brothers in the Water

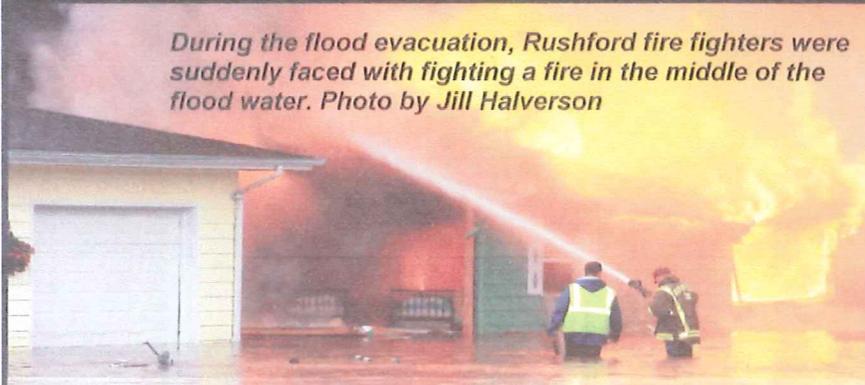

The Rushford Volunteer Fire Department and the Flood of 2007

Presenting

Many stories, both tragic and triumphant, have come from the Rushford flood of August 19, 2007. Brothers in the Water tells the stories, of the Rushford Volunteer Fire Department as they evacuated stranded citizens in early morning darkness in neighborhoods filled with murky, debris filled water.

All proceeds benefit the Rushford Fire Relief Association

During the flood evacuation, Rushford fire fighters were suddenly faced with fighting a fire in the middle of the flood water. Photo by Jill Halverson

After Dec. 10th the books will be available at a number of outlets including Rushford Foods, Preston Foods and Harmony Food Store. Also by mail order and other locations to be announced.
